CAST ANNOUNCED FOR STEAMPUNK FARCE, TELL ME WHEN IT HURTS, FEATURES SIX ACTORS

(CHICAGO) Three Cat Productions announces cast and crew of its next production, "Tell Me When It Hurts," opening December 5 with previews November 30. The show runs through December 21, 2013

The original work by Lisa Scott will feature six actors in the intimate 50-seat setting at the Berger Park Coach House Theater. This unique play is inspired by the popular steam punk genre.

Director and Three Cat Productions Artistic Director is Jason Paul Smith. This is the second production partnership with the Chicago Park District's Berger Park Coach House Theater.

The production features Alex Fthenakis as Dr. Guy Better; Amy Dellagiarino as Kit Smart, Nurse Extraordinary and Intrepid Scientist; Sheila Willis as Melissa; Don Baiocchi as Evan; Adithi Chandrashekar as Officer Grimm; and Matt Lloyf as Admiral D.O.G.

Crew members supporting Smith are Pat Henderson, scenic and lighting design; John Buranosky, props design; Rob Dorn, graphic design; and Jess Koster, stage manager.

Tell Me When It Hurts* is ultimately a warm-hearted work about handling the blows of life with courage and compassion. With its mix of silliness and sincerity, the world premiere production is a great alternative to more traditional holiday fare.
